Duty Sheet

Booth/Floor Duty

- Having a physical booth and introducing your event to students in a warm and friendly manner is always more effective in capturing their attention and providing an opportunity for real-life inquiries.

- You'll need manpower to assist you in carrying out promotion, ask for assistance from other departments by sending the Promotional Booth Duty Sheet in SUSC W/A Fam Group.
- Conduct a briefing at least 2-3 days before the duty day to explain what your event is about and what do you need your booth duty PIC to do.

Event Duty

- You'll need extra manpower to assist you when there's additional manpower needed other than those from your department to help out during the event day.

- Sending the Event Duty Sheet in SUSC W/A Fam Group and allowing executives to choose their preferably delegation is encouragable.
- Conduct a briefing at least 2-3 days before the event day to explain what your event is about and what do you need your event day task force to do.

Action Plan

- The action plan is the final master document that facilitate communication during the event day(s). It covers what needs to be done pre-, during and post-event by the manpower you have recruited. It should describe and explain who do what at where and when.

- To be drafted 1-2 weeks before the event.

- It should be as detail as possible
  - What needs to be done in specific in what way and when e.g. checking stocks of goodie bags and merchandise and F&B

- The timing for each task needs to be as specific as possible
  - Even though there will be delays during the event, having a pre-determined timing for each task to be done also gives you the reference on what agenda can be trimmed or can be extended in a reasonably manner
  - It also serves as baseline reference to estimate how likely your event is going to be delayed or on the right track

Action Plan

- Include any links to any reference document that needs to be refer to during the task and agenda

- PICs
  - This should as specific as possible because in case of replacement, the replacement will know what duties and tasks needs to be done

- What is the standard?
  - It is comprehensive for an outsider to know what to do when reading the action plan.

- Final Briefing
  - Host a briefing to ensure all task force members understand their roles and have a clear picture of the D-Day itinerary
